Quotes for class discussion

It wouldn't be enough to say that the Bible is the man's search for God... It is much closer to the truth that the Bible is the record of God's search. Throughout the Bible people seem bent on trying to find God. And in spite of this, God continues to reveal himself to those same people, refusing to give up, continuing his pursuit in spite of countless rebuffs and evasions. The search culminates in the New Testament, where God has finally made that God has so desired fellowship with his people. In Jesus Christ he has not just sent emissaries or ambassadors or prophets or representatives - In Jesus Christ he has sent himself! It is the most astounding word that has ever been spoken. It is the most stupendous claim that has ever been made. If anything is "unexpected news," this is it. But more to it even than that, the Bible not only tells us that God has sought his people in the past, it tells us that he seeks us out today.

Loving God,
we give you thanks for your gift of the Scriptures, and for your inspiration of writers, translators, and readers.

Inspire us with your Spirit, so that we may meet you and know you in the pages of Scripture.

May all of our reading, studying, speaking, and listening be to your glory and honor.
